Ordinary and Extraordinary

Why Not Join Them! Make Your Gift to The McIntire Annual Fund by June 30, 2005.

This year, more than 80% of the Class of 2005 made a commitment to the McIntire Annual Fund. They know firsthand how essential the fund is to the quality of the education they experienced at McIntire—and they are determined that students who follow their benefit from the same opportunities.

Here's how The McIntire Annual Fund helped them:

- The learning partnership that students form with their professors is the heart of the McIntire experience. The Annual Fund helps the School attract the very best faculty by underwriting their research, case writing, and professional development.
- How many undergraduates get an hour of uninterrupted technology available anywhere. The McIntire Annual Fund pays for the hardware, the financial information, and the software subscriptions that sustain our technology advantage.

- Business in the new millennium means global business. The Annual Fund helps to support many of our international programs, making them more affordable for any student with a passport.
- At McIntire, we educate business leaders. Thanks to the Annual Fund, we support a variety of student organizations, including the teams we send to the American Advertising Federation competition. Last year our team finished second in the nation out of 250 schools.

You don't have to be a current student or recent graduate to benefit from The McIntire Annual Fund. The Fund money enables us to create an online portal specifically for McIntire alumni. It's a great way to network, reconnect with old friends, and mentor current students.

In the final analysis, The McIntire Annual Fund contributes to our exceptional sense of community and the outstanding educational experience for our students.

Your gift to The McIntire Annual Fund will enhance the lives of our students and faculty.
